

Accessibility Statement

This accessibility statement applies to <https://fashionawards.com>

The BFC is committed to addressing accessibility. Where it may not be possible to provide the perfect solution for every eventuality, we listen to the needs of individuals to find solutions and put plans in place to ensure attendees at our events are welcome and that their needs are appropriately met.

Conformance status

The Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) define requirements for designers and developers to improve accessibility for people with disabilities. It defines three levels of conformance: Level A, Level AA, and Level AAA. This website aims to conform with WCAG 2.2 level AA.

Reporting Accessibility Problems with this Website

We're always looking to improve the accessibility of our website. If you encounter content that you cannot access, then please contact us on the details below and we will provide you with an accessible alternative.

<Rachel Citron> / <Rachel.citron@Britishfashioncouncil.com>

Any feedback we receive we aim to get back to you within a suitable time. (if a response is requested).

If you are not happy with how we have responded to the issue you have raised with us about the accessibility of our website, then please contact the Equality Advisory and Support Service (EASS). The Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHRC) is responsible for ensuring websites meet accessibility standards.

This statement is reviewed at least once a year and updated.